

Dead If You Don't

Peter James

"Grace is a detective known for his human touch." —New York Times on Need You Dead

"This skillful twister shows why James was awarded the 2016 CWA Diamond Dagger." —Publishers Weekly starred review of Need You Dead

The 14th entry in the New York Times-bestselling series. A parent's worst nightmare is Roy Grace's deadliest case...

Shortly after Kipp Brown and his teenage son, Mungo, arrive at the soccer stadium for their team's biggest-ever game, Mungo disappears. A short while later Kipp receives a text with a ransom demand and a warning not to go to the police if he and his wife want to see their son alive again. But as a massive, covert manhunt for the boy and his kidnapers begins, Detective Superintendent Roy Grace starts to realize that not all is what it seems.

Peter James is the international bestselling author of many award-winning novels. His Detective Superintendent Roy Grace series has been translated into 37 languages with worldwide sales of over 18 million copies. In 2016 he became the recipient of the coveted CWA Diamond Dagger lifetime achievement, awarded for sustained excellence. Peter has also written a short story collection, A Twist of the Knife, and his standalone titles include his ghost story The House On Cold Hill and The Perfect Murder, which has been turned into a popular stage play.
