How to Be a Princess

Real-Life Fairy Tales for Modern Heroines

Katy Birchall

Modern princesses are made not born. Celebrate the stories of princesses, such as Diana, Meghan Markle and Moana, and be inspired to make your own happy ending—even if Prince Harry is taken.

As Meghan Markle once said: “With fame comes opportunity, but it also includes responsibility—to advocate and share, to focus less on the glass slipper and more on pushing through glass ceilings. And, if I’m lucky enough, to inspire.” Celebrate the Royal Wedding with these stories of 24 of the world’s best-loved and most inspirational princesses, including the British Royal Family’s newest member. Smart, strong, kind and brave, every princess here—whether they fictional or real—has displayed qualities to be admired. Including present-day royalty: Meghan, Moana, Ameera, Wonder Woman, Elsa, Elizabeth II, Fiona, Haya, Tiana, Lalla, Leia, Akishino, Maha, Diana, Catherine, Grace, Maxima, Rania AND princesses ahead of their time: Margaret, Elizabeth I, Pinyang, Hatshepsut, Nzinga and Seondeok. This charming book hopes to make you smile and inspire you to find your own happy ending.

Katy Birchall went to Manchester University where she studied English Literature and Linguistics and then Post-1900 Literature, Theories and Cultures. She works for Country Life as Deputy Features Editor. Katy is the author of The It Girl, The It Girl in Rome, and Team Awkward.
